I'm Devin, and I've spent WAY too long on this about me section trying to think of ways to sound more professional than I need to be. Here is some basic info about me and then I'll throw in a little shout out to my producer, Ashley, to spice things up!- I'm a proud wife and a mother to 3 beautiful girls - ages 7, 5 and 9 months.- I've been with Farmers since March of 2012 and originally started as a customer service rep for my brother's agency (not planning to get licensed).- I live in the Kansas City Northland but graduated from Smithville High School in 2004.- I enjoy learning about new coverages and products to sell, especially business insurance.About My StaffI gained Ashley as my producer in September of 2015. We had an instant connection and continue to be each other's biggest fans (she better agree with this statement...). She is one of my many reasons that makes me look forward to coming to the office each morning. I consider Ashley one of my best friends and she has become another member to our family. When I'm away from the agency I know that I can trust her to take care and manage all of our customers needs. She has a very strong personality and she's one of the many reasons we have maintained our loyal customers. I'm so proud to have her in my back and I'm glad that she's
